All unit holders who have maintained their unit holdings in the Fund as at 22 June 2015 will be entitled to the income distribution.

The Fund chartered a return of 4.62% since inception, outperforming its benchmark by 1.54%¹. This distribution is consistent with the Fund’s objective which endeavours to distribute income on a semi annual basis from the coupon payments received from the bonds invested.

This 3 year close-ended bond fund is the third in a series of target income funds. It endeavours to provide regular income² during the tenure of the Fund by investing in local and/or foreign bonds.

As of today, Eastspring Investments Berhad manages a total of 29 unit trust funds ie. 21 conventional funds and 8 Shariah-compliant funds and 6 wholesale funds.
